

Object Oriented Programming

<Shehara Edirisinghe>

Sri Lanka Institute of Information Technology

Faculty of Computing

First Year Division

(a) Identifying Nouns

- Online bookshop, books, magazines, CDs, products, price, title, author, number of pages, artists, type, registered customers, orders, shipments, store, personal customers, payments, business customers, invoice, credit card, contact information, personal information, reports

(b) Potential Classes & Rejection

Noun	Decision	Rule/Reason
Product	Class	Represents a core entity with shared attributes (price, title).
Book, Magazine, CD	Classes	Sub-types of Products with specific information.
Customer	Class	Represents an entity with personal/contact information.
Order	Class	Manages a collection of products.
Payment	Class	Represents a transaction event.
Price, Title	Rejected	These are Attributes of a product.
Store	Rejected	Likely the System boundary itself.